San Patrignano is world's largest therapeutic community working for the last thirty years for the full recovery of those suffering from drug addiction.

Rehabilitation, professional training and social reintegration are the key concepts to have given a chance to more than 20, 000 young people to start anew without drugs.

Independently verified success rate of San Patrignano recovery programme is over 70%.

Since 1978, San Patrignano has taken in young people for free, offering them home, healthcare, legal assistance, and the opportunity to study, learn a job, change their lives, and regain their status as full members of society.

San Patrignano Community

invite you to

San Patrignano

October 11-14, 2013

WeFree project articulates a broad network of intervention on drug prevention, based on peer to peer education, undertaken by those in the community programme. It is a special event created and implemented by the guys in San Patrignano community. WeFree aims to stimulate a constructive dialogue and will provide an opportunity to learn more about drug addiction and youth.

Cannabis is the most consumed drug in the world, counting more than 160 million consumers, 75% of them in Europe. 1 of 5 students uses it in Italy.

The scientific research highlights serious harms like the risk of developing addictions, psychoses, cancer, impotence. Furthermore, cannabis has the so called "gateway effect", paving the way for the consumption of other drugs.

In the US, the market for medical marijuana will reach $ 8,9 million in 2016., according to some recent estimates.

Scientists, researchers, representatives of international bodies and institutions will lead the roundtable discussion.

Lunch at San Patrignano community

14.00 – 17.00 In the Area "Experience", national and international best practices in the field of drug prevention, social malaise and marginalisation will run interactive workshops. They use arts, in all forms, as powerful tool promoting social reinsertion. In the workshops, the participants will be engaged in the activities.
